

LONE STAR REGION VOLLEYBALL ASSOCIATION
Anti-Discrimination Policy

Lone Star Region Volleyball Association (LSR) strives to create an environment that is free from discrimination or exclusion based on race, sexual orientation, gender identity, religious affiliations, or other personal attributes. We also seek to end bullying, cyber-bullying, hazing, harassment, and offensive conduct in all forms.

These are actions that are not consummate with our organizational philosophy, nor with the culture we will create in our region.

Our region will comply with all anti-discrimination laws outlined by local, regional, and/or federal law.

Lone Star Region Members & Event Participants

Any participant at a Lone Star Region sanctioned event should immediately report any discriminatory behavior to the club director if practice or the court manager if a sanctioned tournament. The USAV Code of Conduct, the USAV/LSR Parent & Spectator Code of Conduct, and all other applicable policies will be enforced.

Any member found to be engaged in discriminatory behavior may be subject to sanction by the region and/or USA Volleyball.

Such behavior may also be grounds for temporary or permanent revocation of your privileges to attend LSR/USAV sanctioned events.
