1. Playing surface	The playable surface consists of the court and at least 2 meters surrounding it, which must be flat and smooth. Additional playing area can have a lower surface by up to ½” as long as both surfaces are safe. Free space requirement of 3 meters for facilities constructed after 2016.	Entire playing surface must be flat, horizontal, and uniform (e.g., playing surface ends at the edge of the portable playing surface). Minimum free zone space is 2 meters. The ball may be retrieved from beyond the free zone when the surface is lower by up to ½” or less and the entire area surrounding the court is free of obstructions.	There must be at least 6 feet (preferably 10 feet) of unobstructed space outside the boundary lines. The court and the adjacent playable area must be flat, smooth and free of obstructions other than required equipment and padding.
2. Playing restrictions	A player must be touching the playable surface to legally play a ball over a non-playing area.	Ball may be retrieved from beyond the free zone when the surface change is lower by ½” or less and the area is free of obstructions. If this condition does NOT exist, then a player must be touching the playable surface when playing the ball, or must land on the playing surface after playing the ball.	A player must be touching the playable surface to legally play a ball over a non-playable area.
3. Center line specifications	May have any or all of the following characteristics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A solid (uninterrupted) line. • A solid interrupted line: 4-inch line, 2-inch break, 4-inch line, 2-inch break, etc. • A shadow-bordered line with .64-centimeter (¼-inch) borders. 	Must be a solid line.	May be solid or shadow-bordered. The border or outlines must be at least ¼” wide and within the total 2” width.
4. Attack line extensions	Required.	Required for nationally sanctioned competitions; optional for other competitions.	Not addressed.
5. Media location	Equipment and personnel cannot be in front of the benches or between the attack lines extended on the bench side of the court. In other areas, must be at least 2 meters away from the court, and within 1 meter of the boundary defining the playing area. During timeouts and between sets, media personnel may enter the court.	Not specifically addressed, but 2 meters of free space surrounding the court is required.	Not specifically addressed, but 6 feet of free space surrounding the court is required.

	NCAA (Women)	USA Volleyball	National Federation
6. Overhead clearance	12.4 meters (41 ft.) is recommended. For facilities constructed after 2006, 7.62 meters (25 ft.) is required.	For nationally sanctioned competition, 7 meters (23 ft.) is required, and is recommended for all other competitions.	At least 23 feet (7 meters) is recommended.
7. Ceiling and obstructions (over playable area of team making last contact)	Ball in play 4.6 meters (15 ft.) or above; judgment replay below 4.6 meters.	Ball in play 4.6 meters (15 ft.) or above; judgment replay below 4.6 meters.	In play. Judgment replay for vertical backboard and cable(s) and/or diagonal pole(s) used to retract a ceiling-suspended net system. Cables for ceiling-suspended net system only on one side of the net are playable.
8. Service zone	Required to have 2 meters (6 ft. 6 in.) of depth past the end line, with no allowance for extending this area into the court.	If 2 meters (6 ft. 6 in.) of depth is not possible beyond the end line, a line is placed within the court boundaries to mark the required 2 meters.	If 6 ft. of depth is not possible beyond the end line, a line is placed within the court boundaries to mark the required 6 ft.
9. Warm-up area	Warm-up area begins at the end line or the end of the team bench, whichever is nearer to the scorer's table. It may extend to within 1.75 meters of the sideline or service zone, as long as substitutes' position does not interfere with the officials' duties.	Warm-up area starts at the end of the team bench or bench area, and may be no nearer the court than the front of the team bench. Substitutes must not interfere with officials' duties.	Warm-up area must be in a nonplayable area (for example, behind bench).
10. Penalty area	Not used.	Recommended – 1x1 meter area 1.5 meters behind each team's bench, with two chairs.	Not used.
11. Temperature	Not addressed.	Minimum temperature of 10 degrees Centigrade (50 degrees Fahrenheit.)	Not addressed.
12. Lighting	Questions about lighting should be directed to the NCAA Secretary-Rules Editor.	300 lux (27.9 foot candles) required measured 1m (39") above the playing surface.	Not addressed.
13. Noisemakers	Artificial noisemakers are not permitted in the playing and spectator areas.	Not prohibited by rule, but event management may choose to disallow artificial noisemakers.	The use of artificial noisemakers is prohibited.
14. Referee platform	Required. Referee's platform and ladder must be distributed evenly behind the net pole, and the ladder must be distributed evenly at the back of the referee platform.	Considered basic equipment. If an appropriate referee stand cannot be provided, the first referee performs his/her functions from the floor. Must present the least potential hazard for participants.	Required. Must elevate the referee's head 2 to 3 feet above the top of the net.
15. Net length and width	1 meter (39 inches) wide and at least 9.5 meters (31 feet, 2 inches) long.	1 meter (39 inches) wide and 9.5 to 10 meters (31'6"-33') long.	36" – 39" wide and 31'6" – 33' long.
16. Exposed cable	Must be covered.	Must be clearly identified and must be padded if cables present safety concern.	Must be covered.
17. Band at top of net	May be 2" to 3 ¹ / ₈ "	May be 2" to 2 ³ / ₄ "	May be 2" to 2 ³ / ₄ "

	NCAA (Women)	USA Volleyball	National Federation
18. Net sleeves	Allowed on top of net only, if secured in such a way that net height and play are not affected, and not greater than 3 $\frac{3}{8}$ " wide.	Not specifically addressed by rule, but sleeves are typically permitted if net height and net integrity are not affected.	Allowed on top of net only, secured to net, shall not affect height of net or interfere with play; not greater than 3 $\frac{3}{8}$ " wide.
19. Net markings	Advertising is allowed on top tape, bottom tape, and/or tape outside antenna.	Not specifically addressed by rule.	Permitted on top white net tape or white sleeve. No markings are permitted on a side (vertical) tape other than the manufacturer's name/logo/trademark or reference.
20. Net posts	Recommended distance from sideline is 1 meter (3 ft., 3 in.). For facilities constructed after 2008, 1 meter is required.	Distance from sideline is .5 meter to 1 meter (20" to 39").	Distance from sideline is 3 feet (1 meter).
21. Ball characteristics	Surface must be a uniform, light color or a combination of colors with at least one-third of surface white or light. The "dimpled" ball used in international competition is not permitted, as the ball must be "smooth leather or leather-like" in composition.	Surface must be uniform, light color or combination of colors.	Surface must be smooth and all panels must be equal size, rectangular-shaped, and solid white or a maximum combination of three colors, with one-third of the panels all white. Balls must include the NFHS Authenticating Mark.
22. Rosters	Not used. Designated coaches must be listed on first set lineup sheets.	Rosters are used at the discretion of the tournament, based on the specific Competition Regulations. When used, all team members, including managers, trainers, etc. are listed on roster. Players not listed on the roster cannot play.	All teammates must be listed. Teammates can be added to the roster, but the result is a loss of rally, point to the opponent.
23. Roster changes	No roster is used.	After roster is submitted, uniform number is correctable but incurs a penalty point. No player changes allowed.	Changes to the rosters may be made until 10 minutes remain on the pregame clock. After that time, roster violations or additions result in a loss of rally, point to opponent.
24. When rosters are due	No roster is used.	Ten minutes prior to start of match.	At the prematch conference.
25. Captain designation	One player must be designated as captain on the lineup sheet for each set, and is captain whenever that player is on the court.	One team member must be designated on the roster as team captain, and is captain whenever he/she is on the court. Any time the team captain is not on the court, another player must be designated as the game captain.	One player must be designated as playing captain on the lineup sheet for each set. That player remains captain unless he/she leaves the set and another player must be designated as captain.
26. Indicating captain	The second referee will indicate the captain with an open hand. The captain will acknowledge the first referee (raised hand or head nod).	The second referee will indicate the captain by placing one hand, palm down, on the front of the jersey (where the captain stripe would be), followed by indicating the player with an open hand. The captain will acknowledge the first referee (raised hand or head nod).	The second referee will indicate the captain with an open hand. The captain will acknowledge the first referee by raising his/her arm toward the first referee.
27. Limit to team members	No limit to the number of players on a team, or the number of coaches/staff.	Limited to 15 players and 5 coach/staff (unless modified by the specific Competition Regulations).	No limit to the number of teammates on a team, or the number of coaches/staff.

	NCAA (Women)	USA Volleyball	National Federation
28. Non-disruptive coaching – ball in play	Non-playing team members are required to stay at least 1.75 meters from the court and completely outside the substitution zone.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The coach may stand or walk within free zone in front of team bench from the extension of the attack line up to and including the warm-up area, no closer to the court than 1.75 meters from the sideline and its extension, without disrupting or delaying the match. One assistant coach at a time may stand to instruct players on the court, with the same location restrictions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The head coach may stand in the libero replacement zone at least 6 feet from the sideline to coach. If a team member on the bench is assessed a card for unsporting conduct, privilege is lost for the match. Assistant coaches shall remain seated on the bench except for the provisions in Rule 12-2-5.
29. Non-disruptive coaching – ball out of play	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Only one coach at any time may address referee to clarify non-judgment ruling or confirm TO/sub information. Coaches may not delay the resumption of play to discuss a judgment decision. Coach(es) must not enter the substitution zone to address judgment decisions at any time. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> During a dead ball, the coach may stand or walk within free zone in front of the team bench from the extension of the attack line up to and including the warm-up area, without disrupting the match. One assistant coach at a time may stand to instruct players on the court, with the same location restrictions as the head coach and without disrupting the match. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> During a dead ball, the head coach may stand in libero replacement zone to instruct players. Privilege is lost for the match if any team member on bench is assessed a card for unsporting conduct. Assistant coaches shall remain seated on the bench except for the provisions in Rule 12-2-5.
30. Designated coaches	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All coaches must be designated on the first set lineup sheet. Any coach may instruct players or request interruptions/ lineup check. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The coach signs the lineup sheet. Only the coach (or game captain) may request interruptions. Assistant coaches may not intervene in the match. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Specific designation not addressed, but the head coach must attend the prematch conferences. 37. Use of red and yellow cards	Used only by first referee.	Used only by first referee.	Carried by both referees; second referee signals need for sanction to first referee using cards.

	NCAA (Women)	USA Volleyball	National Federation
38. Duration of sanctions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Misconduct and delay sanctions – for the set (exception – disqualification is for the remainder of the current match and the team’s entire next match). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Misconduct and delay sanctions – for the match (exception – expulsion sanction is for the remainder of the current set). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Unsporting conduct sanctions – for the match. Administrative Unnecessary Delay sanctions – for the set.
39. Sanction procedures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When a player on the court receives a sanction, the captain must go to the stand to acknowledge the sanction. When a team member on the bench is sanctioned, or a delay sanction is assessed, the second referee immediately and clearly informs a coach. When an improper request is assessed, the second referee informs a coach at the end of the rally. The second referee whistles when requesting any sanction from the first referee. The first referee whistles when assessing an individual sanction, unless the sanction was requested by the second referee. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When a player on the court receives a sanction, he/she goes to the referee stand to acknowledge the sanction. When a team member on the bench is sanctioned, the game captain goes to the referee stand for explanation. Captain communicates information to that team member, who acknowledges sanction with a raised hand. When a delay sanction is assessed, the game captain goes to the referee stand for explanation. The game captain or second referee informs the head coach if needed. When an improper request is assessed, the second referee informs the head coach (or the first referee informs the game captain) at the first opportunity without delaying the match. The second referee whistles when requesting a sanction from the first referee. The first referee whistles when assessing a sanction. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> First referee holds card(s) in hand on the offending team’s side, head high, and verbalizes number of player or which coach received the card. Second referee steps to side of offending team and a few steps towards first referee holding card in middle of chest, then verbalizes number of player or which coach received the card. Second referee verifies that the scorer records information.
40. Electronic Aids	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Statistical data may be transmitted to the bench from any location in the facility. Audio or video transmissions to the bench are prohibited. Video may be viewed between sets outside the bench area, playing area, and spectator areas. 	Not addressed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Electronic devices may be used during the match except to communicate with the player(s) on the court. The first referee may restrict the use of the device(s) if determined to interfere with the contest. Electronic devices shall not be used for any review of a referee’s decision.
41. Uniforms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All players except the libero must be dressed identically. Manufacturers’ logos and lettering on uniforms are not required to be identical. If more than one player (other than the libero) wears a particular article of clothing as an exposed undergarment, all must be identical. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All players except the Libero must be dressed identically, with the exception of small manufacturer logos. If more than one player (other than the Libero) wears an exposed undergarment, they must be similar and of the same color. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All players except the libero must be in like-colored uniforms. Exposed undergarment under top or bottom must be unadorned and a single solid color similar to the predominant color of corresponding uniform top or bottom. Players may wear multiple styles of uniform bottoms (shorts, spandex, pants, skirts).

	NCAA (Women)	USA Volleyball	National Federation
42. Uniform sleeve length	Uniforms must have identical sleeve length (except libero).	Sleeve length is not considered in determining the legality of jerseys. However, sleeved versus sleeveless (tank tops) are not considered the same.	Differing sleeve lengths allowed.
43. Uniform numbers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Numbers must be centered on the back. On the front, the number must be either centered or placed on one shoulder with the top of the number no more than 5" from shoulder seam. The color of the number must clearly contrast with the color of the jersey irrespective of any border around the number. Legal numbers are 0-99, inclusive. Double zero not allowed; leading zero (ex. "05") not allowed. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Uniform numbers must be clearly visible and centered (both horizontally and vertically) on the player's chest and upper back. 49. Illegal uniforms	Not allowed to play.	Not allowed to play.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When a team cannot begin the match with six players wearing legal uniforms, a loss of rally/point shall be awarded to the opponent at the beginning of the match, and the state association shall be notified. If discovered during the set, the player is removed, unnecessary delay assessed, and player may return in legal uniform later in the set.
50. Player equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Splints/braces/casts allowed on arms or hands if padded and no advantage is gained. Hair devices allowed. A headband, head sweatband, or bandanna worn as a sweatband is permitted; however, hats and other bandannas are not permitted. For any headgear not mentioned in the rules, the team must present a current waiver from the NCAA Secretary-Rules Editor. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Splints/braces allowed on hands/arms if padded, will not cause an injury, and no advantage is gained. Casts are not allowed. Hats are not allowed. Headgear that may cause an injury or give an artificial advantage must not be worn. Helmets are allowed if they do not create a safety issue for the player or teammates. Religious head coverings require an official waiver signed by the Rules Interpreter. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Splints/braces/casts not allowed on finger, hand, wrist, or forearm. Casts on other body parts may require padding. Hair devices made of soft material and no more than 3" wide, bobby pins, flat clips, and flat barrettes no longer than 2" and unadorned are permitted. Helmets and religious head coverings require authorization from the state association.
51. Jewelry during play	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Not allowed (exception – medical/religious identification may be removed from chain and taped or sewn under the uniform). Delay sanction is assessed if jewelry removal delays the match. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jewelry may be worn provided its nature does not present a concern for safety, such as extremely long necklaces and/or necklaces with large medallions, or large hoop earrings. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Not allowed (exception – medical or religious identification may be worn and taped to body). Unnecessary delay is charged for jewelry discovered during play. Body paint or glitter prohibited.
52. Jewelry during warm-ups	Preventive officiating recommended first. If a player does not comply promptly when directed to remove jewelry, a delay sanction is assessed prior to the first service of the match.	Not addressed, but referees are responsible for safety of participants and should ask players to remove jewelry which is deemed unsafe.	Not allowed. No penalty unless player does not comply with the referee's directive to remove (unsporting conduct).

53. Blood on uniform	Allow reasonable time to change uniform. No duplicate numbers in same set, but other number changes allowed.	Allow reasonable time to change uniform; no duplicate numbers in same set, but other number changes allowed.	Treat as injured player. Any blood on uniform requires the uniform to be cleaned or changed. No penalty for necessary number change.
54. Damaged uniform	Allow reasonable time to change uniform. No duplicate numbers may be worn by teammates playing in the same match.	Players may change wet or damaged uniforms between sets or after substitution, provided that the color, design, and number of the new uniform(s) are the same.	Not addressed.
55. Control of player equipment	If a player's necessary equipment falls to the floor and creates a safety hazard, play is stopped and a replay is directed.	If a player's equipment falls to the floor and creates a safety hazard, play is stopped and a delay sanction assessed.	If equipment falls to floor, play must be stopped and started with replay. Multiple problems result in unnecessary delay.
56. Definition of a rally	A rally begins at service contact and ends when the ball is out of play. A rally is completed when a point is awarded.	A rally is the sequence of playing actions from the moment of the service hit by the server until the ball is out of play. A completed rally is the sequence of playing actions which results in a point. This includes the award of a penalty point and a loss of rally for failing to serve within the time limit.	A rally is the sequence of actions ended by a fault, resulting in point.
57. Reporting after the interval between sets	If a team is not ready to play at the start of a set, a delay sanction is assessed. Each additional 30 seconds of delay results in a delay penalty up to a maximum of 5 minutes, after which the set is defaulted.	A team that, without justifiable reason, does not appear on court on time defaults the match.	If a team is not ready to start play, unnecessary delay is assessed.
58. When set officially ends and interval between sets begins	When the first referee signals change of sides to the teams (or, before a deciding set, when team representatives are released after the coin toss).	When the first referee signals end of set.	When first referee signals teams to the appropriate benches.
59. Pre-match warm-up	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Warm-up protocols are defined by rule. • When both teams are on court, all warm-up activities must be on the team's own playing area. • When a team has exclusive use of the court, the other team must remain off the playing surface or at their bench. Neither shared hitting nor shared serving are allowed. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Warm-up protocols are defined by rule for specific tournaments and divisions. • For junior competition, when one team has exclusive use of the court, the other team must either be at its team bench or out of the playing area. Warming up with balls at the team bench or in spectator walkways is not permitted. • Neither shared hitting nor shared serving are prohibited in adult competition. In junior competition, neither shared hitting nor shared serving are allowed. 	Not addressed; state association policy.
60. Warm-up between sets	Neither hitting nor serving is allowed between sets. Players may use balls on their own side of the playing area only.	Players may warm-up with balls on their court or in the free zone.	Neither hitting nor serving is allowed between sets. Players may use balls only on their own side of the playing area.

	NCAA (Women)	USA Volleyball	National Federation
61. Coin toss and choice of playing area	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any team representative may attend pre-match and deciding set coin toss. Home team designates their playing area for the first set one hour before the match. Pre-match coin toss is for serve/receive only, and is called by the visiting team representative. Deciding set coin toss is conducted near the scorer's table by the second referee; the toss is for serve/receive or playing area and is called by the home team representative. The second referee communicates the results of the toss to the first referee by extending an outstretched arm on the side of the team to serve first and giving the appropriate signal indicating if teams will remain on their sides or change courts. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Team captains must attend both the pre-match and deciding set coin toss.
